

Home Learning Activity - Maths

Continuing on our work on capacity, today we are going to try and order containers from the emptiest to the fullest.

Challenge 1: Can you order the wizard's potions on the shelf? They need to be in the right order from empty to full so make sure you read the labels carefully. If you don't have a printer, you could make your own potions.

empty nearly empty half full nearly full full

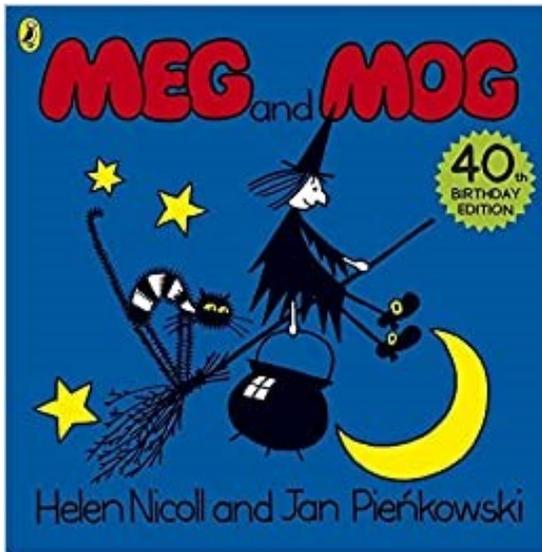

Challenge 2: Use food colouring and water to make your own potions. Can you fill your potion bottles full, nearly full, half full, nearly empty and empty? You could take a picture and put it on Tapestry for me to order!

Home Learning Activity - Literacy

This week, read "Meg and Mog" by Helen Nicholl and Jan Pienkowski . If you don't have the book to hand, you can watch it through this clip.

Afterwards, try and complete Miss Leggett's challenges. You can choose as many as you like to complete.

1. Can you think of your own magic spell? Will it rhyme? What will happen if you say the magic words? You could link this to your potion creation in your maths work.
2. What do you think it is like in Meg's house? Do you think she has lots of magical items to help her with the housework? For example, she could have a Hoover that cleans on its own, or her ceiling could be made of twinkling stars. Draw what you think a witch's house is like
3. Check out these Meg and Mog science experiments attached, and have a magical day!

Reading Challenge

- ⇒ There are lots of other Meg and Mog adventures. Can you find them and read them? Which one is your favourite?
- ⇒ Can you make puppets and act out the story? What noise will the animals make?
- ⇒ Keep reading your new Rising Stars reading books online. Which one is your favourite? Can you tell me about it?
